

Designed for dependable general-purpose hand protection, ProWorks® Powdered Vinyl Gloves provide an economical and comfortable solution for a variety of commercial and industrial tasks. Made from clear, 3 mil vinyl, these disposable gloves offer a micro-textured surface for improved handling and a beaded cuff for added durability and easier donning. The powdered, latex-free construction makes them an excellent alternative for individuals with latex allergies. These non-sterile, single-use gloves are 9 inches long and comply with FDA CFR Title 21 Indirect Food Additive Regulations Parts 174–178, making them suitable for food-handling applications as well as cleaning and other light-duty tasks.
