2 LIBERTY PLACE

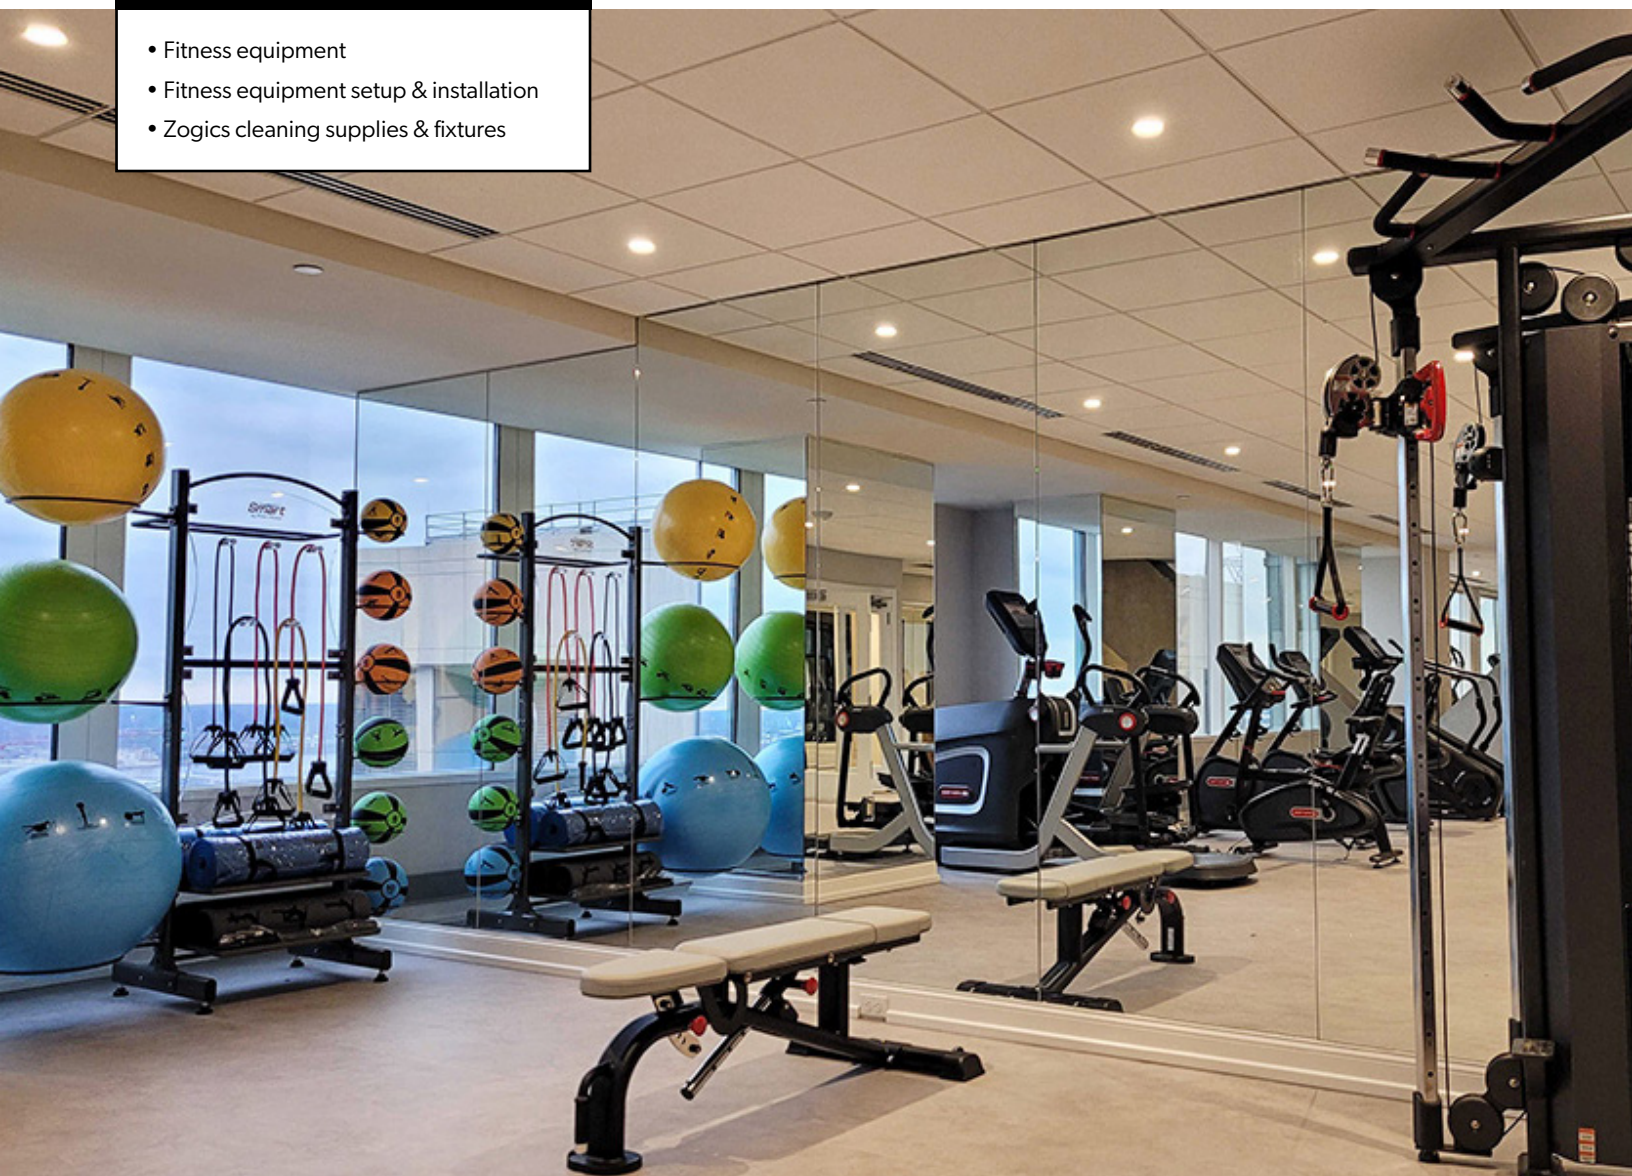

Philadelphia, PA

SERVICES PROVIDED BY ARDENT FITNESS:

- Fitness equipment
- Fitness equipment setup & installation
- Zogics cleaning supplies & fixtures

As the fourth-tallest skyscraper in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and the 34th tallest building in the United States, 2 Liberty Place (2LP) is an iconic fixture on the Philadelphia skyline. Located in the heart of the city's Central Business District, 2 Liberty Place is a 1.2 million-square-foot iconic Trophy office tower with a 12,000-square-foot fitness center amenity. Recognizing the pivotal role of health and fitness for tenants of 2LP, they chose Ardent Fitness for an unparalleled transformation of their fitness facilities.

The renovation has culminated in a fitness amenity that harmonizes with the existing amenities of 2 Liberty Place, providing tenants with a premium fitness experience. The entire space encompasses the forefront of fitness technology, including smart cardio machines, advanced strength training apparatus, and much more.

Connected Fitness For Everyone

With a range of connected cardio equipment from stepmills to recumbent bikes, and more, tenants have plenty of choices for their workouts.

Smart Use of Space

Using the space efficiently allowed for the inclusion of self-guided exercise equipment along with cardio and strength training equipment for a functional fitness experience.

A Workout with a View

Members can workout on a selection of connected cardio equipment from Star Trac while also enjoying a gorgeous view of the city of Philadelphia.

Every Square Foot is Maximized

Ardent Fitness designed the layout to allow for the smart placement of a Nautilus Impact Chin Dip Assist and Nautilus Inspiration Dual Adjustable Pulley.

Easy-to-use. Easy on space.

The Nautilus Instinct® Series of strength equipment is a full line of intuitive machines with easy adjustments, offering users a quick and complete workout.

A Clear View

A wall of mirrors (along with cleaning supplies from Zogics) makes for a bright, clean fitness space for tenants of 2LP.
